

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Detroit.—Cross-Mich. Cent. tracks at Dearborn avenue on way to school Elizabeth Bolobas was instantly killed and a younger sister fatally hurt.

New York.—Shipment of munitions to warring Europe will continue unabated unless forse submarining occurs off American gateways than has to date, marine men say.

Washington.—Chinese embassy officially confirmed Pekin reports that Japanese and Russian governments protested against railway and canal rights concessions to American International Corp. of New York and Siems-Carey Co., St. Paul, Minn.

New York.—American steamer St. Paul arrived from London with Old Glory painted big on each side. Illuminated at night.

Paducah, Ky.—Chas. Brown and Elma Cope, 14, brought back from elopement, committed suicide together.

New York.—Searchlight which casts rays 50 miles and in five colors mounted on Grand Central palace as feature electrical exposition.

New York.—Sam'l Gompers says he fears election of Hughes would mean use of injunction against labor, which he says Wilson will not permit.

New York.—Henry C. Frick bought Rembrandt painting, "An Old Woman Reflecting Over the Lecture," for $250,000.

New York.—New York City's registered voters numbers 738,000, 38,000 more than four years ago. Not considered good gain.

New York.—Prisoners cheered Thos. Mott Osborne when he left the prison after resigning as warden because of disagreement with Gov. Whitman.

East Machias, Me.—Explosion which wrecked old building at water edge revealed it was secret storehouse for explosives and started, of course, gossip of its being submarine base.

Akron, O.—Miss Mary Steeds, physical director Akron university, says any girl may be beautiful if she will substitute dumbbells for powder puff.

Cleveland.—While Policeman Jeffry Gibbons slept a thief entered his home and stole his badge from beneath his pillow.

Princeton, N. J.—Students and faculty of Princeton may be sent home or placed under quarantine following death of freshman from infantile paralysis.

Springfield.—Gov. Dunne appealed to Maj. Gen. Barry, urging that members of Eighth regiment, now at Springfield, be sent home in time to register.

Toledo.—While warden ate Sunday dinner seven prisoners sawed a hole through roof of city workhouse and made escape.

Boston.—Demand that Jewish rights be guaranteed in peace parliament at end of war adopted by Poalei Zion Ass'n of America.

